

Introducing myself

My name is Annachiara Ceraso, I'm 18 and I live in a very small city, Portici, near Naples in Italy.

I live with my mother, Pina, and my father, Massimo, besides this year we are hosting a student from Thailand, Wasinee.

My family and I are very close, we like spending time together and sharing our ideas and experiences.

I really enjoy travelling and my favourite hobby is reading.

I am willing to learn a new language, as I am already very good at speaking English
