Introduction of myself

Hello,

me

My name is Paola Scala and I'm 15 years old.
I come from Italy and I live in Portici, a small city near Naples.
In my family we are five, I've got two sisters but they don't live with me and my parents, they are attending university in Milan, a big Italian city.
My dad is called Vincenzo and is a doctor, while my mum is called Anna and she's a teacher.
My hobbies are going to the gym, I have been practicing artistic gymnastic since I was 10. I really love listening to music and going out with friends.
